Greetings,

Well, if you weren't here on Sunday, July 5, you missed it. There were so many moving parts that missed the mark, but in the end, it was absolutely delightful. First off, I broke my glasses just a few days before the service, and the only "old" pair I had was from 20 year prior (single prescription, no transition tri-focals like a wear now). That made reading fun. I couldn't see much of anything!!! Second, I totally spaced out and forgot to go to the store and get the communion elements, so we improvised with a slice of gluten free bread that had been in the freezer for quite some time, communion wafers, and some grape juice that we don't know how long it was in the fridge. Thirdly (and lastly) Tom Reifenberg had great difficulty recording the service music, and he let me know of his difficulties before the Sunday service. Well, we got to singing the Communion Hymn, and the Organ Playback feature said to itself, "I'm not playing back anymore!" and so it didn't. So, Amy Meyer moved to the piano, and "one-noted" us through the rest of the service. When all was said and done, someone came up to me at the end and said, "This was great. There was such joy in the air, it felt just like Christmas." Indeed, there was joy in the air!

Who knows what will happen this Sunday!

Coming up in the life of the church...

Sandwich Making for Guest House takes place on Friday, July 10, at 9 a.m. Come out and help us. Many hands make light work (and we have a lot of fun, too!)

Men's Group Brat Fry at Sendik's located at 51st and Rawson, Friday, July 10 from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. Proceeds are going to offset the cost of gas for the Intergenerational Mission Trip (and let's face it, Brats are Wisconsin Soul-Food!)

New Members Session On Sunday July 12, following the service of worship, we will have an information gathering and class for those who have been visiting with us and would like to explore membership in the congregation. New Members will be brought into the Fellowship on July 19.

Please see newsletter below for all other volunteer opportunities, activities, events, and classes.

Peace, Pastor Dave
